Press Release: Three entry level officers sworn-in today at the Middletown Police Department

This afternoon, in a packed community room, three officers were sworn-in and will be starting the Police Academy next week.

Stefan Inglis: Stefan is a Middletown native, graduating from Vinal Technical High School in 2013. He is currently enrolled at Tunxis Community College majoring in Criminal Justice. He is also a member of the Connecticut National Guard and was recently promoted from Private 1st Class to Specialist E-4.

Michael Pellegrini: Pellegrini is also a Middletown native. Pellegrini graduated from Middletown High School in 2010 and then attended Mitchell College earning a Bachelor's Degree with honors in Criminal Justice in 2014.

David Skarzynski: Skarzynski graduated from Wethersfield High School in 1986. Was hired by CT Department of Corrections in 1993. In 1999 he was assigned to the Community Enforcement Unit. Then in 2004 Skarzynski was assigned to the Parole Division where he worked until his retirement in 2014. Skarzynski has worked on cases with the Middletown Police Department during his assignments and found to be an invaluable asset.
